Holy Rosary School Celebrates Catholic Schools Week

Catholic Schools Week commences today, Sunday, January 27, 2019. Our students are looking forward to a week of activities that highlight what it means to be a Catholic school student: writing letters to our troops, working together to build a bridge out of donated canned goods (if you have any canned goods you would like to donate, kindly bring them to the school this week), having a Special Person day to honor those who mean most to us, and creating a faith craft together. In addition to these activities, the students and their teachers are creating a Wax Museum and will be open for visitors on Wednesday, January 30th from 9:00 am to 11:00 am.
