From Father Michael:

God calls us to a relationship of freely receiving, and freely giving. Jesus warns us about this temptation, that has so freely given things to us, that we may be tempted to grasp and possess. This is why our Lord calls us to be "poor in spirit" - to empty ourselves of what we might be tempted to grab hold of and prioritize in our lives above God.

In this week's Gospel reading, Jesus invites us to give of ourselves with radical love. We see that our financial sacrifices for the Church grow the kingdom of heaven here on earth by supporting the work of evangelization and in our hearts, by organizing all dimensions of our lives, including our finances, around God.

You should have received a letter recently about our Parish's Offertory Program, Beyond Sunday Morning. I invite you to use the Catholic Giving Guide that was included with your letter to prayerfully reflect on prioritizing God even in our financial lives by growing your giving to our Parish. Next weekend will be our Parish Commitment Weekend, where all families will be asked to intentionally renew or grow their support to our Parish.

Let us give thanks to God for his blessings upon our Parish Family with the words from David in the Old Testament, Lord, everything is from You, and what we give is what we have from You.

If you would like to sign up for online giving please visit <https://hrosarychurchgiving.com/>

Please contact the Parish Office for more information

Lord, we seek to give You glory in every aspect of our lives. As we embark upon our offertory program, Beyond Sunday Morning, we ask that You bless our financial sacrifices to the Parish and use these gifts to Your glory.
