SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

We once again thank Mrs. Michele Aiello for her leadership of our CCD program over the past three years as well as her many years of service to the parish as a catechist. This was especially trying as we dealt with the pandemic. We wish her well in her future. I am happy to report that Michele has graciously agreed to come back and help us as needed and to provide what has been an orderly transition so far.

We welcome Mrs. Elizabeth Brim as our new Director of Religious Education. Mrs. Brim comes to us from Saint Joseph Saint Thomas Saint John Neumann Parish where she has served as a catechist for 40 years including 24 years as Director of the program. I have known Mrs. Brim for many years and I can assure you that both our Parish and children will benefit from her experience.

In addition to her job in religious education, Mrs. Brim is also an Adjunct Professor of Theology at Saint John's University here on Staten Island.

We look forward to welcoming Elizabeth to the Staff of Holy Rosary Parish.

Just a reminder that beginning in September, our children will be attending Class First at 8:30 am followed by Mass at 10:00 am. This is in anticipation of our new Mass schedule which will begin in January.

CREMATION

Since the number of cremations is on the rise, I thought some information about the Catholic Church's teaching and policy on Cremation might be helpful:

In a departure with the past, the Catholic Church now permits cremation as long as it is done without the idea of mocking or being disrespectful to the Church's teaching on the resurrection of the body.

The cremated remains must be buried in a cemetery or entombed in a niche in a mausoleum soon after the cremation or funeral mass. The Church does not permit the scattering of ashes or taking the ashes home without the intent of burial. Burial at sea is an option as long as the entire urn is deposited in the ocean and the ashes are not scattered.

As this is the policy of the Universal Church, it is also the policy here at Holy Rosary Parish. The local funeral homes are all aware of these policies and will work together with the families and the parish in implementing them.

Father Michael
